

Management & Leadership: Coaching, Mentoring & Motivating!

Thursday, May 6, 2004 - 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
LOCATION: to be announced (In Winnipeg)

The Manitoba Quality Network (QNET) provides resources, information session and training on Management & Leadership as part of QNET's focus on improving quality and organizational effectiveness.

This session will provide you with a heightened practical understanding of the meaning, essence and keys to coaching, mentoring and motivating! This session will be a no-nonsense discussion about these three effective tools.

By the end of the session participants will be able to:

- Recognize the role of supervisor as coach, mentor and motivator
- Understand the importance of integrating coaching and mentoring into the supervisor's regular activities
- Recognize the five things which leaders do which affect other peoples' performance
- Appreciate the part which motivation plays, and doesn't play, in peoples' performance
- Avoid the most common demotivator
- Comprehend the importance of sense and meaning to employee development
- Recognize coaching and mentoring opportunities

Presenter: An experienced manager, trainer, and trainer of supervisors, Linton Sellen, has won awards for his leadership, his presentation skills, and his training ability. Linton conducts in-house training of managers and supervisors for businesses and other organizations. He developed the Workplace Leader course that focuses on the key aspects of the leadership role. Linton brings to this workshop his unique combination of education, training, practical experience and exceptional presentation skills!
