

QNET presents:

Personal Strategic Action Planning

Wednesday, September 16, 2009 – 7:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m.

We don't think twice about doing a strategic plan for our businesses and organizations, but very few people take the time to complete a personal strategic plan for themselves. Top performers have a written plan to continuously strive to be the best they can be, personally and professionally. This involves looking at all aspects of your life and developing a plan aligned with your business / work mandate that helps you move from where you currently are to where you want / need to go. Your "personal wheel" rolls smoother and you avoid the "blender mind set" (where all your great ideas... to do's... potential actions whirl around in your head going nowhere.) You will leave this session with a practical planning tool and an action oriented framework to successfully move forward on addressing your long range needs, wants and desires.

Learning Objectives:

- Exposure to a personal planning coaching tool for all areas of one's life
- Develop a plan that moves you away from a 'Monday to Friday' survival mode
- Tips on 'maintaining balance' in hectic times
