Thursday, January 20, 2011 – 7:30 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. (Winnipeg) - FULL

Tuesday, January 25, 2011 – 7:30 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. (Winnipeg)

This session will provide an overview of Lean Six Sigma, along with information on upcoming Lean Six Sigma training opportunities here in Manitoba.

Courses to be offered by QNET include:

- Yellow Belt Certification (five half days + project + exam) – Learn the fundamental concepts of Lean and Six Sigma, problem solving methodology for Six Sigma and Lean, basic statistical concepts, the 7 Quality Control tools, and complete a “real” Yellow Belt project.
- Green Belt Certification (five full days + project + exam) – Learn the fundamental concepts of Lean Six Sigma improvement methodology and building-block tools, develop critical thinking, facilitation, coaching, presentation, and data analysis skills, get “real results” with a strategic Green Belt project.
- Green Belt PLUS Certification (five full days + project + exam) – Internalize Six Sigma improvement methodology, learn more sophisticated statistical concepts, methods and tools, ongoing skill development and get “real results” with a strategic Green Belt PLUS project.

If you are interested in learning more about Lean Six Sigma training or your organization is considering using Lean Six Sigma methodology, this session will provide you with information you need to make your decision.

Facilitator: Vern Campbell is a Consultant with Process Management LLC and General Manager of CML Northern Blower Inc. Process Management LLC is a leading management consulting firm that specializes in assisting clients to implement Lean Six Sigma within the framework of an integrated Enterprise Improvement System. Northern Blower is currently working to integrate Lean Six Sigma methods, the Toyota Production System, ISO 9000:2000 and Strategy Management into an overall Enterprise Improvement System. Mr. Campbell is a Six Sigma Black Belt and he also guest lectures at the University of Miami School of Business and the Stern School of Business, New York University.
