QNET presents:

Developing Healthy Boundaries

Monday, February 11, 2019 – 12:45 to 4:30 p.m.

Location: QNET – Suite 660, 175 Hargrave Street, Winnipeg

Strong interpersonal skills are critical for leaders and professionals in today's complex workplace.

Workplace relationships need boundaries to define how you interact with each other and to give the relationship structure.

Many leaders are unsure of how to develop powerful dynamic relationships with those they lead, especially as workplace issues become more complex and require increased sensitivity.

This half day workshop will explore healthy boundaries for leaders with their co-workers and their teams.

At this workshop, participants will:

- Get clear guidelines of what works now
- Learn healthy boundaries that work
- Gain tips on how to reduce misunderstanding about intentions

Facilitator: Joyce Odidison is a leadership coach, conflict analyst, author and founder of Interpersonal Wellness Services Inc. She is a certified ICF (International Coach Federation) approved coach and the founder of Manitoba's only ICF approved coach training program, one of only a few in Canada. With more than 22 years of training and certification experience, Joyce brings a depth of knowledge, experience and skills to subject matter that will expand your thinking and build your skills in relevant topic areas. Learning with Joyce is often described as fun, lively, interactive, insightful, and engaging.

This workshop is:

- Presented by QNET in partnership with APICS Winnipeg Chapter and Manitoba Education and Training.

Fee:

- $199.00 + GST for Members of QNET or APICS
- $239.00 + GST for Non-Members
